SENTENCES IMPOSED

Jesse Mason Gets Six; Others One Each and Frank Bell Two Years

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

Term Adjourned Yesterday Evening —Decree of Sale For "Unknown Factory"—All Other Cases Continued—Next Court in July.

Superior Court adjourned sine die yesterday evening at 6 o'clock. The docket of criminal cases, which was unusually large at this term, was not cleared entirely but all the principal jail cases were disposed of. The next term, which is for two weeks and which will be presided over by Judge W. B. Council, of Boon, Wautaga county, will convene July 24th. Judge Oliver H. Allen, who held the term ended last night, will go to Wallace this morning to attend the District Methodist Conference there, and Solicitor Duffy will go to his home in Onslow next week. Both the judge and solicitor will enjoy a much-needed rest of a week or two until the middle or last of the present month.

Yesterday was an interesting day in court. T. F. Bell, charged with the murder of John Roderick, was found guilty of manslaughter with a recommendation to the mercy of the court and was sentenced to two years at hard labor on the roads. Jessie Mason, the older of the two boys convicted earlier in the week of implication in the East Wilmington road robberies, was given six years in the penitentiary, and Joe Mason and Will Guthrie, the youngest of the boys in the same conviction, were each given a year on the roads. There will be no appeal in either of the cases and each of the defendants will enter upon his term early next week.

When court met yesterday morning argument to the jury was resumed in the Bell case. Solicitor Duffy spoke for three-quarters of an hour in closing for the State. Marsden Bellamy, Esq., closed for the defence in an earnest appeal for the liberty of the prisoner, whom he believed was guilty of no moral or statute law in his defending the house of unprotected women and himself from an attack of an unlawful mob. Then followed Judge Allen's charge in which he instructed the jury that it could bring in a verdict of murder in the second degree, a verdict of manslaughter or a verdict of acquittal as the law and facts established impressed them. The jury retired at 12 o'clock and at 4:30 o'clock, through Foreman Wm. Sheehan, returned the verdict as stated, having gone out to dinner in the meantime. A verdict against the prisoner was hardly expected in view of the revolution of sentiment soon after the killing when many extenuating circumstances began to crop out. However, the prosecution was very vigorously conducted, Walter P. Gafford, Esq., who appeared with the solicitor, having made a particularly fine presentation of his case and having assisted materially in the general conduct of the prosecution.

When Bell was arraigned for judgment he said that he was 62 years of age. His sentence was first placed at three years, but Judge Allen said later that in consideration of his age and some extenuating circumstances upon which the jury no doubt based its recommendation for mercy, he would reduce the sentence to two years.

Before the jury in the Bell case had returned with a verdict the Mason boys, were brought in for judgment. Counsel for defence made a motion for a new trial but the motion was overruled. A motion was then made to set aside the verdict; motion refused. Then a motion was made in arrest of judgment. That was denied and Judge Allen passed a sentence of six years on the older of the two Masons, for whom the jury made no recommendation to mercy, and one year each for Joe Mason and Will Guthrie, who were recommended to the mercy of the court. The defendants gave notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court. The appearance bond of Jessie Mason was fixed at $5,000 and that of Guthrie and the younger Mason at $500 each. The Solicitor announced in the event of the appeal, he would insist on a trial at the next term in the other case against the defendants, charging them with highway robbery. This announcement put the counsel for the defence in a more tractable mood and later the appeal to the Supreme Court was withdrawn and in the second case against the prisoners, they pleaded guilty with the understanding that on account of the judgment already pronounced, the motion for judgment in the second case is continued until the expiration of the terms already imposed. Then it is agreed by the prosecution that judgment will not be pronounced during the good behavior of the defendants. The older of the Masons was given choice of taking his term on the county roads or the State penitentiary. He chose the "pen." The two younger boys said they preferred to go on the roads where they could see their folks occasionally. It was urged in behalf of the older Mason that he suffers with epilepsy and his affliction should be taken into account in passing sentence. The general comment is that all the defendants escaped extremely light and that upon the expiration of the terms the authorities should see that the conditions as to good behavior should be fully guarded.

Court met at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning and the sheriff returned as summoned eight of the fifteen talesmen drawn for the day. R. S. Hancock, W. A. Roberson, W. H. Biddle, Herman Meredith, Milton D. Hayes, S. J. Davis and Jno. E. A. Grissom were not found. C. M. Kelly, C. B. Rehder and J. V. Grainger were excused by the court. The following civil suits were disposed of: City vs. J. T. Foy, judgment. City vs. Dry, non suit. Fishblate vs. Casualty Co., set for first case on the first day of the next civil term upon motion of William J. Bellamy, Esq., attorney for plaintiff. Gore vs. Bryant, judgment.

It was ordered that all civil causes not disposed of are continued and all motions pending are continued.

A decree was signed in the case of Lyman S. Catlin against Wm. Kraft and The Palmetto Co., upon report of B. G. Empie, referee. All the finding of fact of the referee were sustained and the conclusions of law were correct. It is adjudged that the plaintiff, Catlin, recover of the defendant, Wm. Kraft, the sum of $12,000 with interest at six per cent. from June 1st, 1901, until paid and the costs of the action to be taxed by the clerk. It is further ordered that the property of the defendants in this city, called the "unknown factory," on Smith's Creek, be sold, at public auction to the highest bidder after due advertisement for four weeks. Frank L. Huggins is appointed commissioner to make the sale.

Tug Blanche Returned.

The tug Blanche of the W., S. & L. R. Transportation Company, returned yesterday from Cape Lookout where she went in response to a telegram from Capt. Locke, of the schooner "Jno. S. Sanders went in personal charge of the tug but found that before reaching the vessel in distress that the crew had thrown overboard about 75,000 feet of the deck load of lumber and that she had floated at 6 P. M. Friday without assistance. The Blanche went alongside yesterday morning, but the schooner was only slightly damaged and is awaiting favorable weather to proceed.

A GLORIOUS FOURTH

Wilmington Planning to Celebrate the National Holiday as of Yore.

AT WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Brilliant Display of Fireworks and Carolina Yacht Club Races—The Haymakers at Carolina Beach —Lake Waccamaw.

Everything points to another glorious celebration of the Fourth of July. If there be one thing more than another for which Wilmington has a weakness it is holidays. Despite the growth of commercialism and business expansion here within the past ten years, when the people of this good city do turn aside for a holiday, they never go in by halves. It is with a vim and a vengeance and the "whole hog or none," if the rather inelegant descriptive may be excused in speaking of the "glorious fourth." This year the celebration promises to be upon an elaborate scale and general.

The magnificent display of fireworks by the Consolidated Company at Lumina on the "Night of the Fourth" will take place at Lumina, beginning at 9 o'clock and the public is cordially invited to gather there and see the magnificent display. The exhibition is by the Consolidated Fireworks Company of America, 9 and 11 Park Place, New York, and it is confidently predicted that it will be the largest and most up-to-date exhibition ever seen on the beach. Mr. James S. Hooper will be in charge of the exhibition and has already set about to have everything in readiness so that there will be no annoying delays or "flukes."

Something new and novel will be introduced in a day display of Imperial Japanese Fireworks at 3 P. M., the exhibition costing over $200. These will consist of six 3-inch mortars; six 4-inch mortars; six 6-inch mortars; twenty-five 8 1-2-inch cannon crackers and 12 bags of colored fire, assorted.

The night display will be featured by an exhibition of water fireworks which will include two "flying devils," six "flying fish," three electric floaters; a mammoth illuminator, a water volcano, three realistic productions of a sea serpent, a spray fountain and one jeweled fountain.

The remainder of the land display will consist of Japanese bomb shells, aerolites, vertical wheels, prismatic fountains, rosette wheels, large mines, Chinese fan, Feu de Joi mines, Diamond Star, electric volcanoes, a great reproduction of Mount Vesuvius in eruption and a wide range of everything in the line of rockets. Among these rockets are the Diamond Chain, reaching a height of 500 feet, bursting and producing links of a diamond chain, slowly descending and presenting a lurid picture of variegating colors; electric showers, bursting in mid-heaven and forming an aurora boreallis shower of electric jewels of emerald and sapphire tints; electrically lit willow tree, peacock plume, parachute, twinkling stars and a variety of other designs. The display of Roman candles is large and of the finest type of manufacture.

Everything is as free as the ocean breezes you are invited to breathe from the broad verandas of hotel, club, cottage or pavilion and the company promises an excellent schedule on the suburban line.

The Yacht Club Races.

As previously announced the annual regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club at the beach will begin promptly at 10 o'clock. Already there is great enthusiasm among members of the club and keen rivalry among boat owners. There are several new candidates for club honors and captains of last year's fleet are looking well to their laurels.

The boats that have entered are as follows: "Unknown," Capt. R. Bradley; "Carolina," Capt. B. H. Bridgers; "Yonalee," Capt. Junius Davis, Jr.; "Puzzle," Capt. John VanB. Metts; "Mabel," Capt. George Davis; "Kayembee," Capt. M. S. Willard; "Butinsky," Capt H. J. McMillan. Every member of the club who owns a boat or can induce one of his friends to enter his boat for this race are earnestly requested to so do, as it is the desire of the regatta committee to have as many boats entered as possible.

At Carolina Beach.

The celebration at Carolina Beach this year will be in charge of the jolly Haymakers and a jolly one it will be. The committee in charge is composed of Messrs. G. R. Holt, Henry L. Hewett, M. G. Silvia, James Wenberg, C. T. Strunck, W. L. West, Jno. T. Yates and I. N. Burriss and already they have arranged for a number of delightful features. A few of them will be dancing all day in the pavilion, surf bathing, concert by the Delgado band, a mock initiation by the Degree Team, hypnotic features by the professor and keeper of the barn and a magnificent display of fireworks. The steamer Wilmington will make five trips to the beach, leaving the city at 8:30 and 11 A. M., 2, 5 and 7:30 P. M.; leaving the Beach at 7:30 A. M., 12 M., 3, 6, 8:30 and 11 P. M. The committee guarantees the best of order and a good time for everybody.

The Atlantic Coast Line advertises the usual excursion to Lake Waccamaw on the "Fourth." There is no more delightful place in the world to spend a day of quiet and pleasure than at the "Lake" and many will go there. A cheap round-trip rate is offered and there will be ample coach facilities to take care of the crowds.

"STOP THIEF!" THE CRY.

Veteran's Exciting Chase After Young Negro Last Night.

Mr. R. F. Hamme, the popular clothier and hatter on Front street, is the most active veteran for his years in the State. This was demonstrated late last night in a lively chase for a thief whom he captured, after a race of about six blocks, and turned over to the police. About 11:30 o'clock a colored man quietly informed Mr. Hamme that he had seen a young negro steal a pair of pants from a rack at the front of the store. Mr. Hamme was in his shirt sleeves but bounded out the door at once and up the street to the store of Mr. I. Shrier where a negro was pointed out who had just come in and asked to have a pair of pants wrapped up. Mr. Hamme hailed the negro but he took to his legs up Princess street like a cannon ball. Mr. Hamme followed in close pursuit, shouting at the top of his voice, "Stop Thief!" Fact is, Mr. Hamme shouted so vociferously that he disloged his false teeth and they flew out of his mouth, but before they could touch the ground and break all to pieces on the pavement, Mr. Hamme made a flying catch of the molars and kept up the pursuit. The negro ran down Second street to Market, dodged his pursuer and came back the same track. Mr. Hamme could "right about face" with equally as much agility as the negro and soon he was straight behind him again on Princess street, going toward the Court House. The negro saw some one in his path or scented danger upon the nearness of his approach to the police station and wheeled at the I. O. O. F. building to cross the street. On the opposite side, the thief stumbled on the curb stone near Orrell & Alexander's stable and Mr. Hamme covered him like a blanket. He arose and ordered the negro to lay there until the police came. The negro gave his name as Charles Jones and evidently remembered that Mr. Hamme was a bad man after thieves from a recent episode at his store when three were caught in a bunch. The negro laid still as a mouse until Police Sergeant Burnett came. Then he meekly followed the officer to the guard house for an interview with the Mayor Monday. Mr. Hamme recovered and identified the trousers.

THE M. E. CONFERENCE

District Gathering of Methodists at Wallace Adjourned Yesterday.

MEETS NEXT AT CLINTON

Missions An Interestnig Topic of Discussion—Delegates to General Conference—Mr. C. E. Vale, of Wilmington, Licensed to Preach.

Rev. N. M. Watson, Rev. Geo. B. Webster, ex-Mayor Wm. E. Springer, Mr. W. B. Cooper, Mr. C. E. Vale, Mr. Barden, Mr. T. C. Ellers, Mrs. W. H. Shaw and other prominent Methodists who have been in attendance upon the Wilmington District M. E. Conference at Wallace the past week, returned yesterday morning and last evening. They all speak in glowing terms of the success of the conference which was presided over by Presiding Elder M. Bradshaw, of the Wilmington district. The business sessions of the conference adjourned yesterday noon to meet next year in Clinton, N. C., the invitation having been extended by Rev. A. S. Barnes, pastor of that station.

The Conference transacted much business and elected delegates to the annual conference, which will be held in Wilson the last part of November. These delegates were selected as Mr. R. V. Leonard, of this city; Mr. F. W. Hargett, of Jacksonville; Mr. J. S. Westbrook, of Wallace; and Mr. H. F. Schulken, of Whiteville.

Missions occupied a prominent part in the proceedings of the conference, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, president of the Woman's Missionary Union, of the North Carolina Conference, having made an interesting talk Friday at 11 A. M. and Rev. A. S. Barnes, of Clinton, having spoken on the same subject yesterday. Presiding Elder Bradshaw, who made a fine impression upon the district conference, urged the circuits and stations all to come forward with their full assessments for missions this year.

Mr. W. B. Cooper, secretary of the North Carolina Conference Sunday School Board, made an interesting talk on the Sunday Schools of the district conference and reported that his department of the work was in excellent shape. Mr. Springer, of the Finance Committee, made a very encouraging report from that department. Yesterday morning at the 11 o'clock hour, Rev. N. M. Watson gave the conference an excellent Bible talk which was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. C. E. Vale, of Wilmington, was licensed as a local preacher of the church.

While the business sessions of the conference are over there will be religious services, continuing through to-day. Rev. M. Bradshaw will preach at the Methodist church there this morning and Rev. A. McCullen at night. Rev. J. Marvin Culbreth will occupy the pulpit at the Wallace Presbyterian church at the morning hour.

Rev. Mr. Curtis, of Greensboro Female College, was one of the interesting speakers at the conference. He accompanied the Wilmington delegates home last evening and will occupy the pulpit at Fifth Street M. E. church, in the absence of the pastor, to-day.

BACK FROM SEWANEE.

Bishop Strange Made Profound Impression—At the University.

Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., Bishop of the East Carolina Diocese, and Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of Saint James' church, returned yesterday from the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., where they attended commencement at that fine, old institution. Bishop Strange preached the commencement sermon at the University last Sunday. The impression he made on the students, the large number of the clergy, eleven Bishops, including the distinguished presiding Bishop Tuttle, of St. Louis, who were in attendance, was profound indeed, and by his personal bearing and clearness of thought and speech in the Board of Trustees and everywhere he appeared, he won the heart and the affection of every one. The Board of Trustees unanimously thanked Bishop Strange for his splendid sermon and authorized it to be printed in pamphlet form for distribution among the church. Bishop Strange was called upon to preside at one of the contests in oratory during commencement and was one of the judges in another contest. Sewanee made the same impression of Bishop Strange which he made of it and the entire Diocese over which the distinguished young prelate presides, are proud of this mutual feeling.

Bishop Strange was especially enthused over the grammar school in connection with Sewanee, which is the preparatory department of the great university. Six Wilmington boys have recently matriculated at Sewanee. They are Willie Gordon, in the Theological School; James Charles Craft and Cyrus Hogue in the Academic Department, and Richard Grant and Robert Strange in the grammar school. Meares Harriss leaves Monday to enter the Academic Department of the University.

Death in Brunswick.

Friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Lindsay Walker, which occurred at the family home in Brunswick county at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. She was 36 years of age and leaves a deeply bereaved husband and four young children. The funeral will take place to-day.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Saturday Morning, July 1.

"THE TRUE CRADLE OF LIBERTY."

The above is the heading of an article which S. Millington Miller, M. D., contributes to Collier's Weekly for July 1st, proving beyond doubt that the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence was genuine and ante-dated any other movement for American independence. We have long ago been convinced of the genuineness of the Mecklenburg declaration, though much of the history of that event has been more or less nebulous to convince those who are not North Carolinians.

Dr. Miller proves conclusively that "a declaration of independence was drawn up and signed by thirty-one Scotch Presbyterians, in popular assembly, at Charlotte, Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, on May 20, 1775, nearly fourteen months before that famous Declaration of July 4, 1776, inspired by Thomas Paine and written by Thomas Jefferson."

Along with Dr. Miller's article, Collier's Weekly prints a facsimile of a portion of the first page of the "Cape Fear Mercury" of June 3, 1775, published at Wilmington, and containing the Mecklenburg Declaration. This history of the copy of that paper accompanies the cut:

"This copy of the 'Mercury' was discovered among some papers of Andrew Stevenson, U. S. Minister to the Court of St. James's, and is probably the same copy that Gov. Josiah Martin sent to London in 1775, and that was removed from the British Foreign Office in 1837. The original (8 1-4 x13 3-4 inches) is very frail and much foxed, so that it was with difficulty that a photograph of it could be made. The text in the first column reads as follows:

"'In conformity to an order issued by the Colonel of Mecklenburg County, in North Carolina, a Convention, vested with unlimited powers, met at Charlotte, in said County, on the Nineteenth day of May, 1775, when Abraham Alexander was chosen Chairman, and John McKnitt Alexander, Secretary. After a free and full discussion of the objects of the Convention, it was unanimously resolved,

"'I. That whosoever, directly or indirectly, abetted, or in any way, form or manner, countenanced the unchartered and dangerous invasion of our rights, as claimed by Great Britain, is an enemy to this country, to America and to the inherent and inalienable rights of man.

"'II. Resolved, that we, the citizens of Mecklenburg County, do hereby dissolve the political bands which have connected us to the mother country, and hereby absolve ourselves from all allegiance to the British Crown, and abjure all political connection, contract, or association with that nation, who have wantonly tramp led on our rights and liberties, and inhumanly shed the innocent blood of American patriots at Lexington.

"'III. Resolved, that we do hereby declare ourselves a free and independent people, are and of right ought to be, a sovereign and self-governing association under the control of no power other than that of our God and the general government of Congress; to the maintenance of which independence we solmenly pledge to each other our mutual co-operation, our lives, our fortunes, and our most sacred honor.

"'Abraham Alexander, Chairman.

"'J. M. Alexander, Secretary.'"

Incorporated also as a part of Dr. Miller's article is the facsimile of a letter written by John Adams to Thomas Jefferson June 22, 1819 in which Adams expresses surprise and displeasure at not having been apprised until that date (1819) of the Mecklenburg Declaration.

Governor Glenn is making every effort to ascertain if the copy of the Wilmington Mercury, of June 3, 1775, referred to above, and alleged to have been discovered by Dr. Miller, is genuine. Dr. Miller was in Raleigh last Spring in search of documentary evidence relating to the Mecklenburg Declaration, and his article is attracting wide attention throughout the State. The Charlotte Observer of yesterday, referring to the discovery, says:

"It is a great gratification that the last doubt touching the authenticity of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence of May 20th, 1775, has been removed by the discovery of a copy of The Cape Fear Mercury, of Wilmington, of June 3rd, of that year, containing the text of the Declaration. The text differs from that of the Declaration as we now have it, as it was committed to writing from memory after the destruction by fire of the residence of John McKnitt Alexander, who was the secretary of the meeting and in whose house when it was burned was the original draft of the instrument.

"This important discovery will rejoice the hearts of the true believers in the Mecklenburg Declaration; will establish or strengthen, as the case may be, the faith of those who have been willing to believe but whose minds have not been wholly free of doubt, and will strike dumb the few open skeptics. It also calls for a great celebration on the next anniversary of the signing of the document; and The Observer respectively suggests that the preliminary steps looking to such celebration should be taken not later than the early days in January of 1906."

THE CAROLINA AND NORTHWESTERN.

The Carolina and Northwestern Railway was formerly the Chester & Lenoir Narrow Gauge Railroad which ran from Chester, S. C., to Lenoir, N. C. A few years ago, with a view to the extension of the road across the mountains of western North Carolina into Tennessee, the track of the road was changed to a broad gauge, and some months ago work was begun at Lenoir on the trans-mountain extension.

The extension has already been completed 21 miles beyond Lenoir, taking in Collettsville in a beautiful mountain region of upper western Caldwell county the road now having its terminus at a new mountain town called Mortimer. The road runs through one of the most picturesque regions of the Appalachian range. It will run near Linville where considerable Wilmington capital is invested and a development company has been managed by our townsmen, Mr. Hugh MacRae, who is doing so much for Wilmington as the head of the Consolidated Railways Light & Power Company, of our city.

Mr. E. F. Reid, of Chester, S. C., general manager of the Carolina & Northwestern was in Charlotte, Friday, looking after the interests of his road. When questioned by a Charlotte Observer man concerning the growth and extension of his road, Mr. Reid said:

"We are doing very well, and before long we will be to Tennessee. The Carolina & Northwestern is already in operation to Mortimer, one of the prettiest little mountain towns you ever saw, located 21 miles from Lenoir, and within 15 miles of Linville City. Mortimer sprung up almost in a night, and has flourished like the green bay tree. There are more than 100 houses in the place and some of them are as pretty as any that a fellow would find in a day's journey. On the 15th of June a handsome new hotel was opened, and is now doing good business. I cannot imagine a better location for a little town than the one on which Mortimer is built. It is on Johns' river and Wilson's creek, two of the State's beautiful mountain streams. The John's river valley and Wilson creek gorge are famous. The force behind the town is the Wilson Creek Lumber Company, owned largely by Mr. W. M. Ritter, a West Virginia capitalist. The company owns and operates narrow gauge railroads in and about the village. The power plant of the company operates the plant that furnishes the town with electric lights. Mortimer is 8 miles from the Linville and Blowing Rock turnpike, and before this year is out we will cross that road. We expect to tap the line 18 miles from Blowing Rock."

Wilmington is deeply interested in the Carolina & Northwestern. It is one of the feeders of the Seaboard Air Line, crossing it at Lincolnton and thus reaching Wilmington over the Carolina Central. It is going to tap the iron region of North Carolina and the coal regions of Tennessee, and we expect to see Wilmington getting its coal over that route within a year at most.

—Next Sunday, July 2, the New York Herald will have a Russo-Japanese War Supplement containing complete story of the battle of Mukden—the most tremendous conflict of modern times—told by the Herald's war correspondent, who saw the battle from the Russian side and was captured by the Japanese. **

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 1.—The cotton market opened at an advance of 2 points on July which was influenced by fears of manipulation but generally unchanged to 15 points lower, under liquidation. Cables were about as expected but the weather was fairly good and with commission house longs selling preparatory to the government report on Monday caused further loss, with the market at one time about 8 to 20 points net lower. Leading bulls seemed to be buying at this level, and later fluctuations were very irregular with the market feverish and unsettled.

Just a little too far and the woman who reaches over the cliff for the coveted flower goes crashing down into the abyss below. Just a little too far and the woman, who, day by day, neglects to cure the woman ly diseases which weaken her is prostrated upon a bed of sickness.

No woman should trifle with the diseases peculiar to her sex. Neglect to-day means a worse condition to-morrow.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a safe and reliable remedy for the cure of diseases peculiarly womanly. It establishes regularity, dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"My wife, Mrs. Mary Estes, has been taking your medicine and received great benefit from it," writes Mr. Geo. Wm. Estes, of Springgrove, Va. "Was troubled with female weakness, heavy, bearing-down pains, severe pain in back and head, and a tired, worn-out feeling all the time. Tried all the remedies we could hear of, but they did no good. Finally we wrote to you and my wife commenced taking 'Favorite Prescription.' Took ten bottles, and is in better health than before in a long time. We shall always recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to all who are thus afflicted."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of twenty-one one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Mr. Charles Bradley, a laborer at the Scotland Mills, Laurinburg, sat down on the edge of the platform Wednesday night, went to sleep and fell off, breaking his neck. He fell about five feet.

—At Newbern on Friday restraining order was granted by Judge Henry Bryan to Mayor, C. S. Wallace, of Morehead City, enjoining the Atlantic North Carolina Co. from laying a sidetrack through the main street of Morehead City from the Newbern House to the Atlantic Hotel, a distance of a half mile. The hearing is set for July 15th.

—Nat Crump, the desperate negro in jail at Lexington for waylaying and shooting H. Clay Grubb sometime ago, made a dash for liberty Tuesday. The sheriff was taking Crump from the court house to jail in a buggy when he jumped from the buggy and attempted to escape. He was overtaken and captured. Lester Davis, David Leonard and Henry Charles have been bound over to court in $500 bond each for aiding and abetting Crump. Evidence against them is slim.

—Governor Glenn has respited until September, Will Exum, the murderer under sentence to be hanged at Kinston. Governor Glenn says Frank Daniels, of counsel, who is now in a sanitarium in New York, desires to be present at the first argument for commutation. The Governor also respited Ashley Moore, alias Holmes, under sentence to be hanged for murder July 17th, until he can look into the case more thoroughly, as he was to-day notified a commutation would be asked for.

—Will Williams and his wife, both colored, were locked up in jail at Salisbury Thursday night to await the injury that the wife of Williams inflicted upon the wife of Mark Henderson, colored. The Williams woman says her husband liked the Henderson woman too well and when she saw them together she went after her rival with a razor. She used it well, laying bare the breast of the Henderson woman and almost killing her. The infuriated negress then turned upon her husband and cut him across the shoulder, but did little harm. It took nearly fifty stitches to bing the gash in the Henderson woman and she is dangerously wounded.

A movement is on foot for the establishment of an electric carriage line from Walnut Cove to Rural Hall via Weadows, Danbury, Piedmont, Moore's and Vade Mecum. The Danbury Reporter states that the scheme is to construct a private roadway which will be equipped with passenger and freight machines, making several trips per day. The vehicles will be up-to-date, will carry their motive power with them, supplied with strong batteries and will make an average speed of twenty miles an hour. The project is thought to be feasible and entirely practicable and will pay handsomely on the investment. Leading citizens of Stokes, Forsyth and Durham counties will probably furnish the bulk of the capital, which will not exceed $20,000.

—There was quite a lively scene at the Concord depot Thursday night. Mr. J. C. Henley, a Salisbury drummer got off the train and got in a 'bus to go up town. Peg Bostic, the porter on the 'bus, shut the door, and, learning that another train would soon be there, attempted to keep the drummer in the 'bus till the other train came, although the drummer protested vehemently and finally had to knock the porter down before he could get out. The drummer after getting out to his baggage, got his pistol, and things looked lively for a time. At a trial Peg, the porter, was fined $10 and cost, while the drummer was exonerated. Mr. Henley's lawyer argued that his client was deprived of his liberty and he had no resource but to fight his way out.

—Charlotte Observer, June 30: Mr George Stephens, of the Southern States Trust Company, was exhibitin a check yesterday, which he prizes very highly. It was one taken from the burning wreck of the twentieth century limited, which was wrecked on the Lake Shore and New York Central Railroad last week between New York and Chicago. The check is made payable to a Chicago bank and is signed by Mr. W. H. Wood, cashier of the local bank. It was being transmitted through the mail, and was in the mail car that caught fire. The ends of the check are burned off, but the name of the local bank, the name of the bank of which it was made payable, the amount of the check ($26.28) and Mr. Woods' name are clearly discernible. The check was sent on to the Chicago bank, and byt it went back to the Trust Company for redemption. It will be framed and placed in the office of the bank.

—The Southern Yadkin Development Company, composed of capitalists of Davidson county and Philadelphia, propose developing the water power of the Southern Yadkin river from a point at Hartsley Mill to a point of the railroad bridge near Holtsburg, a distance of 30 miles, the terminal being 8 miles from Salisbury. The estimated cost of the improvements is $2,000,000. Captain J. M. Bandy, of Greensboro, hydraulic engineer, has completed the survey for a canal 8 to 10 feet deep and 80 feet wide at the bottom. Leaving the river at Hartsley Mill this canal will follow creeks nearly three-fourths of its twelve miles, covering the 30 miles of the river channel in this distance. The engineer is now making his profile and plan of the survey with estimated cost of the enterprise. The power has already been estimated at over 3-000-horse power. The object of the company is to build an immense cotton mill at once and furnish lighting and motive power for near-by towns and cities, including Greensboro, High Point, Lexington, Salisbury-Spencer and Winston-Salem. The company will also run barges and boats on the canal, furnishing power and lights to other cotton mills which may be located along the canal.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—That Republican paper is due next week but we are willing to give them a little more time.—Durham Herald.

—Great expectations are held of Senator Tillman's promised speech at Greenville on the Fourth of July. Will it be fiery or watery or firewatery?—Charleston Post.

—A pomological expert in California claims to be on the verge of the discovery of cobless corn. Don't want it in old Virginia where the good old fashioned roasting ear reaches the state of perfection.—Richmond Times-Disapteh.

—Virginia courts still take the lead. Judge Harrison, of Winchester, has just decided that rich wives who employ their poverty-stricken husbands on a farm must allow them enough salary to enable them to pay their honest debts.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

—There is hardly any crop North Carolina can not produce. We would remind the big talkers about the Kansas wheat crop that Piedmont North Carolina can produce just as much to the acre and as fine quality of these crops, as can be done in either of these States, or any other one in the Union.—Salisbury Sun.

—By special invitation, General Stephen D. Lee was the guest of the Grand Army Post in Chicago. There is no reason why these events should not be more frequent occurrences. We do not believe in slopping over as between the North and South, but forty years after the war has ceased sensible men of both sections ought to be able to meet and fraternize.—Norfolk-Virginian-Pilot.

—Washington Correspondent Thos. J. Pence says that the race of the two republican factions to get on the ground first with their "organs" was the first move in the game to capture the North Carolina delegation to the next national convention. If either faction has to run its paper jam up, or even approximately so, to convention time, it will wish before it gets through with the job that it had waited a little longer before starting.—Greensboro Telegram.

TWINKLINGS.

—"He can't value himself highly." "Why not?" "Because he's always giving himself away."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—She—Is your wife's name very dear to you? He—Very. Every dollar I owned before we were married is in it.—Detroit Free Press.

—Mr. Lodger: "Why do you always lock your door when you go out?" Mr. Boarder—"How do you know I always do?"—Cleveland Leader.

—Beaks—"I have decided never to marry until I find my ideal." Peaks—"What sort of a girl is your ideal?" Beaks—"Anything that wears skirts and has $50,000."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

—"Say, Miss Pechis!" cried Mr. Nervey suddenly, "I swear you're the most kissable creature in this town." "Sir! You forget yourself!" "Aw! go 'way. I ain't near as kissable as you are."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—"It is hard to tell whom you can trust," said one grafter. "Yes," answered the other. "Some times I think there is no such thing as honesty. You never know who is going to turn State's eviednce next."—Washington Star.

—"Pa, what's an entente cordiale?" "That a polite way of referring to it when a couple of fellows who haven't been the best of friends decide to let bygones be bygones and step in to have a drink on it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

—"And you say the folding bed shut up on you last night?" asked the boarding house lady. "Sure I did," replied the new boarder. "You must have experienced great discomfort." "Not at all, ma'am. You see, I used to be a policeman, and I'm used to sleeping standing up."—Yonkers Statesman.

—After a long, weary search the man secured work. "How do you like your job?" we inquired at the end of the first week. "I'd like it pretty well," was the reply, "but for one thing." "What is that?" "They're mighty slow about offerin' me a day off."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

WORKS WONDERS.

A Wonderful Compound—Cures Piles, Eczema, Skin Itching, Skin Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises.

Doan's Ointment is the best skin treatment, and the cheapest, because so little is required to cure. It cures piles after years of torture. It cures obstinate cases of eczema. It cures all skin itching. It cures skin eruptions. It heals cuts, bruises, scratches and abrasions without leaving a scar. It cures permanently. Wilmington testimony proves it.

J. S. King, clerk on Market street, residing at 815 Orange street, says: I used Doan's Ointment and found it to be a great remedy for itching hemorrhoids. It acted like a charm in my case. I tried all kinds of remedies, but until I used Doan's Ointment I could get nothing to give me positive relief. It is a splendid preparation and you are welcome to use my name as one who says so. I obtained it at R. R. Bellamy's drug store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Positively, no subscription will be taken at the reduced rates for a period less than six months. For one month the price will be, as heretofore, $1.25 for three months; or, fifty cents for one month.

This offer, as will be noted, is for a limited period only, and is made for the purpose of giving those who appreciate the value of a daily newspaper an opportunity to read the STAR for six months, or more, at a cost of about one and a quarter cents per copy, and then determine whether or not they will continue their subscription at the regular price.

No name will be entered on our books under this offer unless the order is accompanied with the cash.

While this proposition is made primarily to secure new subscribers, old subscribers outside the city may avail themselves of its advantages at the reduced rate provided they pay all arrearages and for not less than six months in advance.

On account of the heavy expense attached to our city circulation department this offer does not apply to city subscribers.

Sample copies mailed free to any address.

Note the conditions of this offer carefully to avoid mistakes.

Saturday Morning [illegible]

A BRONZE FLOWER.

Prettiest Morning Glory That Ever Bloomed in a Tomato Can.

While I devoured my sandwiches, finger marks and all, with a mighty appetite at noontime of my first day at work with the iron molders Mike reached over into a neighboring yard and plucked a crisp climbing morning glory. Holding the delicate blossom up for my inspection, he said, "Young feller, kin you make me one just like that in bronze?" I was quite sure I could not. "But," said he, "you needn't think it can't be done. First you get an old can, punch a hole through the bottom of it with a nail and stick the stem of the flower through the hole, leaving the blossom inside. See?" I saw. "Next you fill the can with water and drop into the water bit by bit nice fine sand. Mind you, go slow. After a long time the water will leak out, leaving the blossom buried in the sand, but still in good shape. Now you'll dry the whole thing in the core oven and bake it. That will burn the blossom to ashes. Then if you have the patience to shake it and shake it till all the ashes drop out through the stem you'll be ready to pour in your metal, and if you do as I tell you and make no mistake and try about six times you'll have in the end the prettiest morning glory that ever bloomed in a tomato can."—Scribner's.

FRIENDSHIP.

It Imposes Serious Duties Upon Those Who Court It.

"When acquaintanceship ripens into friendship, something serious has come into one's life," writes Mrs. Henry Graham in the Onlooker. "I don't think that any one can or ought to afford to have more than one or two really intimate friends. If love has gone with friendship—that is, if the gates of paradise have been opened to you, and the guardian angel has sheathed his flaming sword and admitted you through the portals—then you must have given everything, and you have very little left to give. A man can have a man friend and a woman a woman, because there are places where men meet men and women meet women alone, neutral ground where the other sex cannot enter because of its limitations, and there real friendship may live and thrive on the crumbs which fall from the rich man's table.

"For friendship implies something serious. You must give of yourself, your real self, and once given it cannot be taken back. One has no right to give up a friendship unless the other person agrees or unless it has become an absolute impossibility, and even then all the obligations of it may survive, while the delights of it die."

THE "I" AND THE "J."

Why They are Dotted and How the Practice Originated.

The dot over the "i" originated in an accent which was put over the letter when doubled or placed next a "u," a practice traced back to the eleventh century. In the twelfth century the accent occurs in the combination of "i" with other letters, and in the fourteenth century the accent was changed to a dot—first instance in MSS. 1327—which became universal when printing made it inconvenient to retain both forms.

Originally "i" and "j" were modified forms of the same letter. In the fifteenth century the "i" at the beginning of a word was lengthened and ornamentally turned to the left, while in the middle of a word it was unaltered. Both forms were dotted, and after the initial "i" became "j," a separate letter and a consonant, it still retained its dot. This is limited usually to the small "j," but abroad it may be seen also over the capital letter.—London Telegraph.

King Alfonso's Bet.

When the king of Spain was at Xeres he greatly admired a horse belonging to Senor Rivero, one of the notables of the town, who at once presented him with the animal. The king refused the gift, but the other day at the pigeon shooting at the Casa de Campo, near Madrid, a match was arranged between the king and Senor Rivero. The stakes were, on the king's side, a gold piece of 100 pesetas, and on Senor Rivero's a souvenir of Xeres.

Like a skillful courtier Senor Rivero lost and sent the king the horse which he had so much admired as a souvenir of Xeres. The king could not refuse to accept, but he at once sent the senor one of the best horses in the royal stable in exchange.—London Sketch.

A Mare's Nest.

A "nightmare" was supposed by our ancestors to be the Saxon demon Mara, or Mare, a vampire which sat upon the sleeper's chest and was regarded as the guardian of hid treasure, over which it brooded, as a hen over her eggs, and the place where it sat was termed the nidus, or nest. When any one claims he has made a great discovery which is really no discovery at all we say he has discovered a "mare's nest," a place where an imaginary treasure lies.

Sure of Himself.

"I'll give you a position as clerk to start with," said the merchant, "and pay you what you are worth. Is that satisfactory?"

"Oh, perfectly," replied the college graduate, "but—er—do you think the firm can afford it?"—Philadelphia Press.

RUSSIA'S WOES OVERSHADOW WAR

Latest News Announce Again Surrender of Rebellious Battleship Crews

RING LEADERS WILL BE HUNG

Three Hundred Mutineers Deserted Ship—Twelve Women Killed at Breziny—Great Political Strike To-Morrow—Wild Rumors.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Odessa, July 1.—1:59 A. M.—The night passed without any untoward incident. The stillness was occasionally broken by distant rifle shots evidently signals between the troops who bivouacked in the various suburbs. Otherwise all was quiet.

The exodus continues by every train. It is necessary to book seats several days ahead. At the railroad station this morning the correspondent heard a Russian offer a hundred roubles for a traveler's five rouble ticket to Birsula. The terror of the situation is largely kept up by the social Democrats' manifestos proclaiming that Odessa has commenced the revolution.

Increasingly Serious.

Odessa, July 1.—10:50 P. M.—Matters appear to be becoming increasingly serious. Although there is a flood of wild rumors in circulation it is difficult to ascertain the truth of any of them. According to one of these rumors which is from an apparently reliable source, a deputation of one man from each of the mutinous battleship, and Kniaz Potemkine and Georgi Pobiedonostz, to-day visited the Governor-General and notified him that unless the city capitulated to the mutineers within forty-eight hours the warships would begin a bombardment.

Strong forces of military guard every street leading to the harbor and the public is not permitted to approach any point overlooking the harbor or the sea, even in the suburbs where the garrisons have been strengthened by an addition of four battalions of infantry and a battery of artillery, the latter of which has mounted heavy guns on the high ground in Alexander Park commanding the harbor and roadstead.

Many fears are expressed that the remainder of the Black Sea squadron now lying here and consisting of two batttleships, two cruisers and six torpedo boats, will join in the mutiny.

The battleship Kniaz Potemkine and Georgi Pobiedonostz remain here. The others have left this port. The local authorities have refused to allow the crew of the Knaiz Potemkine to land for the purpose of purchasing food. They told the sailors to send ashore lists of what they wanted.

Why Did Squadron Leave?

Sevastopol, July 1.—Part of Rear Admiral Kruger's squadron has arrived here from Odessa.

Rumors That Fleet Has Mutinied.

Washington, July 1.—The Russian Black Sea fleet is reported to have mutined. American Consul Heenan at Odessa has cabled the State Department as follows: "Fleet reported in mutiny, two battleships, the Potemkine and another."

FRANCO-GERMAN CONTROVERSY.

France Makes Concessions and Crisis Believed to Be Passed.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Paris, July 1.—Prince Von Radolin, the German ambassador, called at the foreign office this evening by appointment and during a two hours talk with Premier Rouvier, received from the latter the French response to Germany's last note concerning Morocco. The response takes into consideration the assurances Germany has given relative to French interests in Morocco and modifies some of the objections at first raised against a conference.

The general tenor of the response is favorable to the principle of a conference. Diplomatic circles, therefore, regard the controversy as practically closed as little now remains to be done to adjust details. This, however, may take some time as each side is tenaciously contesting every step.

—The body of a negro man, horribly mangled, was found Friday morning at Main street crossing, a train having killed him some time after midnight. The victim was Eugene Leeper. He has two brothers at High Point, and as the dead man resided elsewhere. It is supposed he was beating the blind baggage to go to see them when he accidentally fell and met his death.

He states that it was stylish then to wear white pants and vests, and that he was right in to swim, paying $5.00 for his creeches and about $3.00 for a handsome white vest, both of which are well preserved and are now in the Snow Flake Steam Laundry being laundered and prepared for the 4th, when the Esquire will wear them to Shelby.

CHICAGO PACKERS ARE INDICTED

Five Big Houses and Seventeen Prominent Men Connected With Them Are Defendants.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Chicago, July 1.—After an investigation of several months, during which more than a hundred witnesses were examined, a Federal grand jury this afternoon returned indictments against seventeen men, prominent in the beef packing industries, for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, and against four officials of Schwarzschild & Sulzeberger for alleged illegal rebating agreements with railroads.

Resides these individual indictments, bills were voted against Armour & Company, Swift & Company, Nelson Morris & Company, the Fairbanks Canning Company, and the Cudahy Packing Company.

The men indicted for alleged conspiracy in restraint of trade which constitutes a violation of the Sherman Act are:

J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour & Company; Charles Armour, of Armour & Company; Arthur Meeker, general manager of Armour & Company; T. J. Connors, director of Armour & Company; P. E. Valentine, treasurer Armour & Company; Samuel McRoberts, assistant treasurer of Armour & Company; Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Company; Charles Swift, of Swift & Company; Lawrence A. Carton, treasurer of Swift & Company; Arthur F. Evans, attorney for Swift & Company; R. C. McManus, attorney for Swift & Company; A. H. Veeder, general counsel for Swift & Company; Edward Cudahy, of the Cudahy Company; D. E. Hartwell, secretary of Swith & Company; Edward Swift; vice president Swift & Company; Edward Morris, secretary of Nelson Morris & Company; Ira W. Morris, of Nelson, Morris & Company. The four employees of Schwarzschild and Sulzeberger, who were indicted for alleged rebating with the railroads are also connected with the traffic department of the corporation. There names are Samuel Weil, B. S. Cusey; C. E. Todd and V. D. Skipwort.

The indictments voted for alleged violation of the anti-trust law were identical in each instance. The contained eight counts. The first and the second counts of the indictments pertained only to beef sold in domestic trade. The ninth and ten counts relate to beef sold in foreign trade.

The third count charges a conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce among the States, and with foreign nations. This count charges that the trade which the defendants were carrying one was to be restrained in several ways.

1.—Competition in the buying of cattle at the stockyards in different cities, was to be prevented and destroyed by the defendants who required their purchasing agents to refrain from bidding against each other.

2.—Competition as to the sale of the foregoing commodities in foreign and domestic markets was to be prevented and destroyed by the defendants, fixing non-competitive and unreasonable prices for such commodities, and requiring their representatives in the different markets to fix prices by agreement from day to day according to what the market would stand.

3.—The supply of the foregoing commodities was to be curtailed and restricted whenever necessary to maintain the prices so fixed.

4.—The United States was divided up into territories among the defendants, and each company was to keep its own territory without interference by the others.

5.—There was a division as to the volume of trade allowed to each defendant in a given market, if one packer sold more than his percentage during a given week, he was obliged to pay an "ante" of so much a hundred weight, according to the territory in which the matter occurred, into a pool to cover the excess of sales and this fund was divided among the packers who fell short in their sales.

6.—Certain corporations; namely, the Aetna Trading Company and the Oppenheimer Manufacturing Company, were to be appointed exclusive agents of the defendants to handle sausage casings and containers and those companies were to make arrangements with several concerns which had been handling such merchandise in the markets of the world for working in harmony and controlling the output and price of the merchandise. This scheme involved the destruction or "tanking" of large quantities of casings whenever the supply was too great.

The fifth count specifically covers the handling of the by-products, casings and containers, also, stocks of stearine and oils, describes a conspiracy in restraining of trade to be effective in the same way as set forth in the third with reference to all the products mentioned.

The sixth count charges the casings conspiracy to be an attempt to monopolize trade and commerce in that commodity in the United States and in foreign countries.

The seventh and eighth counts allege that the National Packing Company is a conspiracy in restraint of trade and an attempt to monopolize trade by organizing the National Packing Co., and this is described as a conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce.

As soon as the indictments had been handed into court, District Attorney Morrison suggested that each of the defendants be placed under bonds of $5,000, and when the court asked if bench warrants were to be served, he was informed by the district attorney that the legal advisers for all of the men included in the indictments had agreed to produce the men on Monday or as soon as possible after July 4th. Judge Bethea acquiesced in this arrangement.

SECRETARY HAY DIES SUDDENLY

End Came Yesterday Morning Shortly After Midnight Near Newbury, N. H.

THE PRESIDENT SHOCKED

King Edward and President Loubet Send Messages of Condolence—Mr. Cleveland Pays Tribute—Burial at Cleveland, O.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Oyster Bay, L. I. July 1.—The first cablegram received by the President from a foreign ruler regarding Mr. Hay's death came from King Edward as follows:

"London, July 1.

TO THE PRESIDENT:

"I beg to offer the expressions of my deepest sympathy on the occasion of the death of your distinguished Secretary, Mr. Hay, whom I had the pleasure of seeing very recently. His loss to the great country over which you preside will be a national one.

"EDWARD, R."

To the cablegram of King Edward, President Roosevelt responded as follows:

"Pray accept my hearty thanks for the expression of your sympathy in what is a national bereavement.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Newbury, N. H., July 1.—The body of Secretary of State John Hay, whose unexpected death early to-day has caused sorrow throughout the land, and evoked expressions of sympathy and rgret the world over, lies to-night in a room of "The Fells," the quaint gable-roofed mansion, which for fourteen years had been the summer home of the Hay family.

Just one week ago to-night the Secretary arrived at this village from Washington wearied with the cares of State and anticipating a "long Summer's rest." To-night the same launch in which Mr. Hay made the short trip from Newbury to the landing at "The Falls," conveyed relatives of Mrs. Hay to the cottage where they brought sympathy and help to the stricken woman and her only son.

The only members of the secretary's family at "The Fells" when the end came were Mr. Hay and Clarence Hay, Mrs. James A. Wadsworth, of Geneseo, N. Y., a daughter, has been ill recently and had not been at Lake Sunapee this season. Mrs. Payne Whitney, daughter, is on her way to Europe.

Mr. Hay died at 12:25 o'clock this morning. The last moments of the statesman were peaceable, and the end came almost without a struggle. The suddenness of it all was staggering. The Secretary yesterday had passed the most comfortable day since his illness began a week ago. He was to sit up to-day.

Death was caused by pulmonary embolism, according to Dr. Scudder. The patient did not suffer greatly in his last moments. Aside from great difficulty in breathing there was no strugggle. Stimulants were ineffective. The Secretary lapsed into unconsciousness and seemed to fall asleep at last.

The consternation of the household was complete and it remained for Dr. Scudder to assume charge of affairs.

After two hours the physician was driven to the village where half a dozen telegrams were dispatched. The first went to President Roosevelt, at Oyster Bay. The second was addressed to the State Department at Washington. The others were sent to friends of the family. Dr. Scudder returned to "The Fells." The body will be taken to-morrow to Cleveland, Mrs. Hay's former home. Private services will be held in the chapel at Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland, on Wednesday forenoon. Mrs. Hay received word to-night that President Roosevelt would attend the service. It is expected that the members of the cabinet will act as honorary pall-bearers. The funeral party will include Mrs. Hay, Clarance Hay and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mather.

From early forenoon until late to-night, the arrival of messages was almost continuous. They came from all parts of the world, among them being messages from President Roosevelt, former President Cleveland, President Loubet, of France, and others.

President Roosevelt Shocked.

Oyster Bay, July 1.—President Roosevelt was shocked and grieved inexpressibly at the death of Secretary of State John Hay. Immediately on receipts of the news, he indicted a message to Mrs. Hay expressive in a measure of his profound sorrow at her great bereavement.

It is regarded as probable that no immediate selection of a successor to Mr. Hay will be made. It is not unlikely that on the return of Secretary Taft, from the Far Eastern trip he may be appointed Secretary of State, although nothing definite at this time can be said on this point. Concerning the death of Secretary Hay, President Roosevelt to-day made the following statement:

"My sense of deep personal loss, great though it is, is lost in my sense of bereavement to the whole country in Mr. Hay's death. I was inexpressible shocked, as every one was, to all of us, including Mr. Hay's immediate family, had supposed that all immediate danger was over, and I had been hoping that the rest during the Summer would put him again in good health by the Fall. The American people have never had a greater Secretary of State than John Hay, and his loss is a national calamity."

Mr. Cleveland's Tribute.

Buzzard Bay, July 1.—On learning of Secretary Hay's death to-day former President Grover Cleveland said:

"I am intensely shocked and grieved to hear of the death of Secretary Hay. I feel that in the light of the highest and most substantial good of the country we can ill afford to lose such a man. While the grief caused by his death must be universal we, as people, should be grateful for his life and deeds and above all should profit by his lofty example of patriotism and duty."

Japanese Minister Expresses Regret.

Washington, July 1.—All Washington official life is mourning the death of Secretary of State John Hay as a loss irreparable to the nation. His associates have had placed at half staff the flags of the various department buildings. When Acting Secretary of State Peirce was informed of Mr. Hay's death he notified the members of the diplomatic corps, and sent cablegrams conveying the news to each of the American embassies and legations aboard. Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister was the first of the foreign representatives to call at the State Department to-day to express regrets. He was followed soon after by others of the diplomatic corps, who tendered condolences.

THE BONDHOLDERS WIN.

Judge Purnell Makes Important Decision In Onslow Suit.

After argument in the U. S. Circuit Court by George Rountree, Esq., for the plaintiff, and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and W. D. McIver, Esq., for the respondents, Judge Purnell yesterday rendered a decision in the case of D. H. Tolman, of Chicago, against the Commissioners of Onslow county, involving the payment of about $1,500 interest coupons on part of an issue of $40,000 bonds by the county to the old Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina Railroad, which bonds it is now sought to repudiate by an action in the State courts on the ground that the act of the Legislature authorizing the election on the bond issue was not passed constitutionally. The contentions in the case are well remembered by readers of this paper.

Judge Purnell holds the coupons to be valid and the bonds legally voted. A decree is ordered to be drawn and entered accordingly. The Treasurer of Onslow county is held to be the trustee and he is ordered to pay the coupons when presented, out of the tax levied and collected for that purpose. The respondents will no doubt take the case up to the Circuit Court of Appeals upon the signing of the decree.

Judge Purnell set Monday at 10 o'clock as the time he will hear attorneys on the motion to set aside the verdict in the case of C. L. Parker against the Clarendon Water Works Co.

CITY LEAGUE BASEBALL.

Junior Teams Play Doubleheaders Again—Cape Fear League.

In the Junior Baseball League yesterday the Monarchs took both games from the S. S. R., team, the score in the first having been 8 to 2 and in the second, 15 to 2. The 15 runs in the latley and Moore and Aldermen and Bullluck were the batteries in the first two innings the S. S. R., boys finding it exceedingly difficult to break the machine in the merry-go-round. Brinkley were the batteries in the first game and in the second Poisson and Gore, W., for the Monarchs; Bulluck, Kendall, King, W., and King, L., for the opposing team.

The Y. M. C. A. and Market Street Giants split even on their games yesterday, the first having gone to the Y. M. C. A. in a score of 18 to 11 and the second to the Giants by 8 to 11. The games were good and signalized by hard work on the part of both teams.

The Cape Fear League, a juvenile organization formed last Saturday, played doubleheaders yesterday. The Tar Heels took both games from the Chestnut Street Sluggers by scores of 16 to 11 and 18 to 5, establishing their percentage at 1,000 and the Stars and Sixth Street Rattlers broke even with scores of 8 to 7 and 4 to 3, one of the games having been 13 innings.

TO DEVELOP STRANGE POWER.

Former Police Sergeant Leaves For North for Scientific Research.

Believing that he is possessed with peculiar powers of healing by the laying on of hands and backed by strong testimonials of his wonderful curative powers from friends whom he has treated in this city, former Desk Sergeant Geo. H. Ward, of this city, will leave to-day for Asbury Park, N. J., New York and Boston where he will have this power of healing defined and developed by scientists whom he proposes to consult. Mr. Ward says he has no desire to enter into competition with the medical fraternity but upon his return to the city will establish himself for the practice of his mysterious art. The friends of Mr. Ward wish him well in his search for scientific knowledge and the development of this strange power reputed to him by those who have received his treatment.

MUST HAVE SIDEWALKS.

Act of Last General Assembly Will Be Enforced.

Elsewhere in to-day's Star will be found an official notice from Mayor Waddell that under and by virtue of an act of the last General Assembly, which is mandatory, all sidewalks in the city of Wilmington which are unpaved or out of repair, must be paved or repaired at once by the owners of abutting property, and that if the same is not done within the next thirty days by them, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen will, under the terms of the Act, order the same to be done at the expense of the owners and that the cost thereof will be a lien on said property, enforceable by a sale under execution from the Superior Court. Grades will be given by the city engineer when necessary.

STATE TEST FARM.

Further Deliberations of Local and Agricultural Committees.

The test farm committee from the State Board of Agriculture in company with the Chamber of Commerce committee yesterday went out the Market street road and inspected the Southerland tract, which is available for the trucking experiment station. Returning to the city the committee was in session at The Orton from 12 to 2 P. M. but gave no intimation as to their purpose in regard to the change of the location of the State farm from Wilmington to this vicinity. Strong addresses in behalf of Wilmington were made by Mr. J. A. Taylor, Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur, Mr. F. C. McClellan and Mr. W. A. Dick. The address of Dr. Porter was especially strong. While he was loyal to Pender county and Pender county people, he said that he would not allow his county pride to override what he thought was best for the entire trucking belt. The committee from the State Board returned to Raleigh last night and will announce its decision later.
